DESCRIPTION OF THE FOUR LEVELS:

Vigilance (green). Basic measures

(LEVEL 1)

Activities maintained in compliance with provincial health rules.

Early warning (yellow). Strengthened basic measures

(LEVEL 2)

Activities maintained in compliance with health rules, but with added enforcement, such as increased fines. Required when there's an increase in transmission.

Moderate alert (orange). Intermediate measures

(LEVEL 3)

New measures that target specific sectors and activities where the risk of transmission is deemed higher.

Maximum alert (red). Maximum measures

(LEVEL 4)

Includes targeted additional and more restrictive measures that could extend to prohibiting non-essential activities, while avoiding provincewide confinement.
