

The Writer's Briefcase

Stock an old briefcase or backpack with writing tools such as assorted markers, Colour-Over markers, scented markers, coloured pencils, crayons, scissors, glue, stapler, various sizes of coloured construction paper for covers, half-picture, half-lined primary paper, lined primary paper, unlined paper, and blank books of various sizes.

Attach a note that says:

Dear Author,

Because you are a very special writer, you can take the Writers' Briefcase home. Choose whatever paper or blank book you'd like to write on. Bring what you write back to school to share in the Authors' Chair. If anyone in your family wants to write something to share, please also bring their writing to school. Please enclose a not from your Mom or Dad on the accompanying sheet. Here's to reading and writing!

Love,

Ms. Leslie
